

THE INN AT MONTCHANIN VILLAGE

The village of Montchanin is not so much a hamlet as a microcosm of American history. Once part of the Winterthur estate, it was named for Alexandrine de Montchanin, grandmother of the founder of the DuPont Gunpowder Company. One of the few remaining villages of its kind, Montchanin Village is comprised of 11 carefully restored buildings dating from 1799 to 1910.

ROOMS AT THE INN

There are 28 richly furnished guest rooms, many with private, professionally landscaped courtyards and gas fireplaces. Each room and suite is unique, with its own individual character and features.

All guest rooms have deluxe private baths, dual-line telephone with dataport for computer use, high-speed internet, cable TV and wet bar. Many have sitting rooms with gas fireplaces. All rooms and suites are furnished with period and reproduction furniture and appointed with the sophisticated traveler in mind.

We provide nightly turndown service, complimentary daily New York Times delivery, elegant bathrooms with heated towel racks, robes and in-room safes. Room service is available. On site parking is free. All rooms offer a refrigerator filled with complimentary sodas and water, microwave, coffee maker, and china, glass and flatware.

Superior suites are exquisite large rooms with gas fireplace and are beautifully decorated in 19th century original and reproduction antiques. They feature large private, marble bath with an oversized walk-in shower and soaking tubs, heated towel racks and illuminated make-up mirrors.
